

HOSPITALITY JOB DESCRIPTION AND QUALIFICATIONS

The primary role of the person in the retreat staff position of “Hospitality” is to help the participants feel comfortable and welcome. Often this position is filled by a past participant who may also serve in the position of Participant Coordinator.

Job Responsibilities:

- Helps welcome the participants as they arrive.
- Responsibilities may vary according to the needs of the participants and staff. Tasks assigned (by retreat leader) at beginning of retreat or as needed.

The Candidate Should:

- Have an outgoing and friendly nature.
- Demonstrate excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Have the ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Be knowledgeable about the CfR psychosocial guidelines.
- Have knowledge of and be sensitive to breast cancer issues.
- Use the Wellness Team (psychs and meds) as a resource for participants needs.

Attendance at Activities:

- Attends all retreat activities, with possibly 2 exceptions:
  1. Attendance at the Morning Gathering is optional.
  2. The Evening Circle which is typically attended only by participants, psychosocial and medical staff, and sometimes the retreat leader.

Time Commitment

- Attends the entire retreat, from the pre-retreat staff meeting held several hours before participants arrive through the follow-up staff meeting held after participants depart (generally from about 1 p.m. on the first day until about 4 p.m. on last day) – see Sample Schedule.